ANNUAL FOOTBALL CLASSIC

Sunday Attracts Large Attendance—Fleas and Flies Tie Score 6-6.

A large crowd of fond parents and interested friends joined the motorcade formed on the campus of St. Stanislaus College on last Sunday afternoon and journeyed to the stadium to witness that football classic of the season—the annual Fleas and Flies football game which was played with the usual thrills and spills of a large football team.

Attired in full football regalia and showing all the promise of their older brothers, the young players provided thrill after thrill. The St. Stanislaus Band, in colorful costume and playing with their usual vim, provided music and between the halves, divided and marched with the members of the two teams to the center of the field where the ceremony of "burying the hatchet" was performed with great gusto and to the loud applause of the football fans. After the ceremony, the young players recovered their helmets and proceeded to their places where the game was continued and the final exciting score of 6-6 resulted.

Preceding the game, the entire student body, members of the Sidelines Club, the St. Stanislaus Band and the player motored to the stadium headed by the traffic police with sirens clearing the way.

The proceeds of this game are annually given over to the community Christmas tree which Brother Peter, president of St. Stanislaus College, annually sponsors and personally directs the purchasing and distributing of toys for the needy children of the city, and no cause is more worthy of support.

CHILDREN TO RECEIVE PRIZES

For Greatest Number of Toys For Needy Children Brought to Ortte Theater

In further writing about the collection of toys for poor children of the city and county which is being sponsored by Mr. Edward P. Ortte with the assistance of the Bay St. Louis Rotary Club, the American Legion, and a number of prominent citizens, Mr. Ortte wishes to state further that handsome prizes will be given for children bringing the greatest number of toys in good condition for the collection.

On Wednesday and Thursday of each week until Christmas, any child bringing a toy in good condition will be admitted to the show free of charge, the toy to be placed in the collection, and handsome prizes will be given to children bringing outstanding toys.

Cash donations will also be accepted and anyone wishing to make a donation may give same to Mr. Leo G. Ford at the Post Office and this money will be used to purchase toys.

This charity is one worthy of support by everyone as it is meant to reach poor children who would be left without Christmas cheer in both the city and county and to those who are unable to get into the city, the toys will be brought to them.

The distribution of these toys will take place one day during Christmas week at the Ortte Theater when Mr. Ortte will have a free show for all children attending with a special Christmas program and a gala time assured for this happy event, the exact date to be given later.

The Bay St. Louis Rotary Club, The American Legion Post and Girl and Boy Scout troops will participate and assist in collecting funds and toys and it is expected that this deserving charity will grow from day to day and become an annual institution.

STANISLAUS LIBRARY GETS MANY NEW BOOKS

The Stanislaus library, under the able direction of Brother Timothy, has received a number of new books.

On the shelves, entirely new books now appear ready for use. It has been the desire of Brother Timothy to gather sources of knowledge in every possible field to give the boys more complete and up to date information.

The newly acquired books concern different materials. There is a wide variety of books concerning science, namely engineering and the like. Also included in the new books are those that deal with different kinds of arts.

CHURCH GUILD ELECTS

Officers For Next Two Years—Mrs. Sarah Power New President

The Episcopal Guild of Christ Church met at the Parish house on Carroll avenue on Tuesday morning and elected officers for the next two years.

Mrs. Sara Power was elected president and Mrs. W. J. Chapman, who has been treasurer of the Guild for forty-two years was named life-treasurer with Mrs. Mary Montgomery as assistant treasurer. Mrs. Carl Marshall was elected vice president. Mrs. J. R. Shadon recording secretary and Mrs. Clarence L. Horton corresponding secretary.

A review of the excellent work accomplished in the church by the Guild was read before the meeting which showed that the grounds about the church had been embellished, the church newly painted, two new windows placed and the other windows finished and new pews are now being awaited. Over a thousand dollars had been given in by the Guild and their missionary work well taken care of and a child in the orphanage entirely cared for by the Guild.

Members of the Guild have accomplished a remarkable amount of work for the Red Cross chapter, completing forty shirts, two hundred infants' garments, ten dresses and other articles.

Arrangements were also made for the completion of the "National Every Member Canvass of the Episcopal Church" when each member is called upon and their church pledges taken.

Mrs. Warwick Aiken gave an interesting synopsis of the synod she attended in Charleston, S. C., recently.

The Episcopal Guild is one of the outstanding church organizations in the city and their work is a great credit to the community.

TOY BOWL CLASSIC TO-NIGHT

Finest Prep Game in Season Expected for Toy Bowl.

The Stanislaus Rockchaws have just completed their very successful season, which was a tough and hard fought one at that, but their undying efforts were finally rewarded when by defeating the Cadets of G. C. M. A. the title of Coast Champions of 1941 was awarded them. This victory qualified the Stanislaus eleven for the Annual Toy Bowl.

For seven years the Toy Bowl has been an annual classic in which two teams with good records are asked to participate. The proceeds from this game and other events are taken into a fund to aid poor unfortunate children of the city of New Orleans. People in and around the Crescent City donate wholeheartedly to this worthy cause. The Times-Picayune sponsor of the benefit originated this Christmas Tree Fund in the city and does a fine job of making thousands of children happy because of this benefit game.

The 1938 Coast Championship team was the first Stanislaus squad to participate in this charity classic. Though handicapped by the inability of several of their best players, Stanislaus came through with flying colors, managing to tie the Blue Jays, their opponents, 6-6. It was this game that renewed the Stanislaus-Jesuit rivalry, for it had been some ten years or more since the Rocks had encountered the Blue Jays. Since then the battle of these teams has been an annual affair. It has not been, however, just another game for the contest always turns out to be very colorful and interesting one.

The game will find the Rock-Chaws in fine shape with their quadruple-threat defense, the mighty "Doc" Blanchard. The opponents of the undefeated and untied Rock-Chaws team will be the extremely powerful and fast McComb eleven. They also have a perfect record winning every one of their games by a large margin. It is very difficult to compare these two fine teams due to the fact that they play games in entirely different circles. However, the game will undoubtedly be a fine example of a great football game. The game will be played on Friday night, December 5th, at City Park, starting at 7:30 P. M.

CHAS. G. MOREAU

The Angel of Death made an unexpected call on last Friday morning and carried off with him the soul of our beloved editor and publisher, Charles G. Moreau. Although ill from time to time during recent months, his sudden passing was a distinct shock to his countless friend and associates.

Mr. Moreau was on the eve of the completion of fifty years of continuous service as editor and owner of The Sea Coast Echo, which he founded January 9, 1892, a youngster still in his teens. He was commemorating the Golden Jubilee Anniversary of its publication with a historic edition, the material for which he had just completed and the majority of which was printed when he was stricken. This edition was to have been the crowning achievement of his long and interesting career, and our sorrow at the sudden passing of our beloved friend and counsellor is only surpassed by the regret that he could not have lived to see his greatest wish fulfilled.

The community of Bay St. Louis as well as the working force on this paper, whom he called "his boys," have lost a true friend, an outstanding citizen and leader. Mr. Moreau had literally grown up with this community and the beautiful Gulf Coast in general, and his life and talents were dedicated to the upbuilding of this section of our state.

Mr. Moreau had made good during his life. At the time of his death he was president of the Merchants Bank & Trust Company and had other financial interests; he had been at the head of practically every civic organization in town at some time or another during his life, but his real success was the building of The Sea Coast Echo, and he was able to do that because he helped to build such strength and durability into his community.

For one other reason, too, we wish to pay tribute to the memory of our departed friend. We have known Mr. and Mrs. Moreau for many years and never have we seen more complete love and harmony than that shared by them. As one editor expressed it, "The devotion they had for each other was beautiful beyond the power of the printed word to portray."

It can be truly said of him that "he left this world better than he found it for his having lived here." His paper and his record of unselfish service to his city and state will stand as his monument through the years to come.

We shall miss him often.

PEACE-MAKERS

JAPAN avers that she seeks peace in the Far East and Germany insists that the Nazis desire nothing more than peace.

Since the Manchurian incident in 1931 Japan has pursued a steady policy of aggression against neighboring lands and is now poised for new thrusts in the name of "peace."

Hitler has explained every German offensive against other nations upon the basis of self-defense. The other peoples were either about to attack, or in league with the enemies of Germany.

This is the story that comes from Tokyo and Berlin. Never has the world witnessed such strenuous performances for peace. The aggressive nations want peace in the future so badly that they make war in the present to achieve it. At least, that is their story.

HEALTH IS DEFENSE

ADJUTANT Gen. Thomas J. Grayson, Col. Robinson, chairman civilian defense council and Dr. Felix J. Underwood, state health officer, are planning the sale of Christmas Seals as an aid to defense. These men say: "It is not only true that health is important in defense; health is defense." And from the way drafted men have been turned down on account of physical disabilities the whole country will agree that the above statement is true and correct.

COTTON FARMERS TO VOTE

MISSISSIPPI cotton farmers should not forget that Saturday, December 13th is the day on which the cotton referendum will be held. On that day all the cotton farmers are supposed to go to their voting places and cast their vote on the cotton quota proposition. Your county agent will be glad to explain the matter fully to any who may not already understand what it means to vote on this question. The present supply of American cotton is 23,800,000 bales, sufficient for two years consumption.

THE FARMER IS YOUR FRIEND

SPORTSMEN should remember that the farmer is your friend. Ask permission to hunt on his land. He will usually meet you halfway. Put up his bars and close his gates. Don't destroy his chickens or cattle, or allow your dog to worry them. Put your camp fire out before leaving, and protect his property and your hunting ground. Consent your local warden often.

Drive carefully, let others have a holiday unimpeded by accident, and enjoy the Christmas season yourself.

Remember that you know all the news in the county but you can find out other news by reading our columns regularly.

BADGE OF PATRIOTISM

BECAUSE of greatly increased responsibilities in the national defense program the Red Cross has appealed to the nation for a 1941 membership to that of the first World War when more than 18,000,000 adult Americans gave their support. Membership in the Red Cross is more than a sentimental endorsement of good will. The entire machinery of Red Cross peacetime operations has been geared into a vital part of our military and civilian defense. Red Cross membership dollars thus are transformed into a tangible means of protecting the American way of life.

The Red Cross is on the job with the Army and Navy here and abroad, providing an important link of communication between the service man and his family back home. With 2,000,000 men under arms this task has grown almost tenfold. The corps of Red Cross field directors is assisting with experienced counsel and with financial aid to solve the problems of our service men and their families back home.

Red Cross volunteers are giving their blood for emergency transfusions in the Army and Navy. In the coming year some 10,000 Red Cross nurses will have been inducted for military and naval service. Uniformed volunteers are nearing completion of 40,000,000 surgical dressings requested by the Surgeons General of the Army and Navy.

For its part in the civilian defense program, the Red Cross has undertaken the training of 100,000 Nurse's Aides, an auxiliary corps of volunteers to help relieve the current shortage of registered nurses. During the coming year 1,000,000 men and women will be taught Red Cross first aid as a civilian preparedness measure. Disaster relief preparedness is being widened to meet the challenge of sabotage, fire, explosions and to stand as a backlog of readiness in the event of sporadic bombing or armed invasion. Nutrition and Home Nursing courses will be extended to additional thousands as protective health measures.

These are the reasons why the Red Cross asks your support this year. Your membership button is a badge of patriotism, a way you can express your belief in America.

BIBLE WEEK WORTHY

WE are conscious of the existence of more "weeks" to promote special causes than the calendar allows and that American people are a bit fed up on the numerous proclamations of So-and-So Week.

Just the same we are going to call attention to a special week, with the suggestion that our readers observe it. Between December 8th and 14th the first annual Bible Week in America will be observed if a recently appointed committee can bring the matter to pass.

Asserting that the Bible is the fountain head of democratic doctrines and the answer to attacks being made upon them by Nazism and communism, a Laymen's National Committee insists that "a renewal morale" and that "the Bible is the symbol of spiritual tradition and unity in this country."

We thoroughly endorse the Bible Week and the general purposes of the group of interested laymen. Their observations as to the value of the Bible in relation to national morale and democratic doctrines, is true but, just the same, we think they could launch their annual week upon the basis of the value of the Bible to the individual.

However, there is no occasion for argument as to the best reasons for a Bible Week. Let's make it a point to see that the week gets some publicity and urge our fellow-citizens to observe it.

WHAT IS MAN?

DO you recognize the Pleiades when you see them in the eastern sky? Maybe, you know them as the "Seven Sisters," according to the legend of ancient Greece?

Anyway, don't try too hard to find the seventh sister, invisible to the naked eye. Just remember that the astronomers have recently added 24 stars to the group which now numbers 211, according to the experts.

Dr. Adrian Van Maanen, of the Mount Wilson Observatory, identified the new members of the constellation which is one of the nearest to the earth. Light from these stars, moving 586,330 miles a second, requires only 500 years to reach the earth.

These figures give us an appreciation of the amazing distances in the universe that is slowly unfolding its vastness to the scientific research of man. No wonder the Psalmist wrote with prophetic wisdom:

"When I consider thy heavens, the work of thy fingers, the moon and the stars, which thou hast ordained: What is man, that thou art mindful of him? and the son of man, that thou visitest him?"

DEFENSE ITEM

HERE'S an item that may mean something about defense:

One day, recently, a plane factory in Texas delivered fifty all-metal training planes to the government.

One year before the field upon which the plant stands was growing cotton. Structural steel was unloaded late in November, 1940, and the first plane was assembled April 7th.

These are hundreds of similar plants in the United States busy today turning out weapons for the defense of democracy. We hear of only a few but when the full story of our rearmament program becomes known, Americans will be proud of their country.

FOR NEW STATE BUILDING

GOV. Johnson stated to newspapermen in his press conference that he favored the legislature providing necessary rooms for taking care of all state activities and state department now renting space in non-state-owned buildings. He thinks this can best be done by the creation of a state building adjacent to the Capitol. The state is now paying out approximately $69,000 a year in rent for offices. It is believed that certain surplus land in the city, including a portion of the old asylum property, can be sold for enough to finance the construction of a commodious office building.

MY EXPERIENCES AS A PAGE BOY

By CURTIS FAVER

The greatest thrill experienced during my stay in Washington was seeing snow. The most I saw was nineteen inches. It was a beautiful sight, but when it started to melt it was awful. It was necessary for me to walk two blocks in this to get to the Capitol. I wore rubber overshoes, but still my feet felt awfully cold at times.

Most of my free time was spent sight-seeing. I tried to visit the places of most interest. One was the Smithsonian Institute. There is a display in there of things used in this and foreign countries. I saw the places in which Wiley Post and Will Rogers were killed. The Spirit of St. Louis was on display. There were all types of old guns.

I visited the Lincoln Memorial. Here Lincoln's Gettysburg address is carved in the wall. I also went to the top of the Washington Monument. From the top you could see almost all of Washington. This monument is over five hundred feet high. You really feel shaky going in the elevator.

Roosevelt Airport, which cost $15,000,000.00 is a very pretty sight. It is located on Arlington Highway. Mt. Vernon is another place I visited. The antique furnishings are beautiful. The kitchen has an open fire place and all the old time kitchen utensils are shown here. There is one room which has an exhibit of clothes, pens, books and hundreds of things used by Martha and George Washington.

Arlington Cemetery is another place of interest. I saw the tomb of the Unknown Soldier. This is continuously guarded by a soldier. When in Washington a person should not miss seeing the Franciscan Monastery. The grounds are very pretty, also, the architecture of the buildings. I went all through the place and even saw the catacombs built by the priest, which is a replica of the real catacombs of old.

The Capitol itself is a very interesting place. In the Hall of Fame there are statues of all the great men of our country and beautiful paintings. I was present at the unveiling of the monument of the late Huey P. Long.

There is a society called "The Mississippi Society" which is composed of Mississippians working in Washington. One of the affairs given by this society was a formal dinner given in honor of our late Senator, Hon. Pat Harrison. This was given at the Carlton Hotel and I really enjoyed myself very much. Here I met familiar faces and it felt like home. I also attended a dance given by the Society at the Kennedy-Warren Hotel.

I think a person could spend a year in Washington just seeing the interesting things and there would still be lots of things to see.

LIBRARY NOTES

Here comes the Library Board with another literary treat for all the book lovers.

On December 4 the board will present Mrs. John Begg who will give Walpole's "Blind Man's House." Your afternoon cannot be better spent than to hear Mrs. Begg who is so generally popular on the coast and in New Orleans, as a visitor.

The time: Thursday, December 4, at 3 p. m. Place: Episcopal Parish House. The review is scheduled earlier in the month than usual to avoid the Christmas duties.

We have had some very creditable exhibits which we appreciate. We appreciate the co-operation and the contributions of our friends who so generously loaned pictures and hand-crafts for the exhibit. We cannot refrain from mentioning the work of the young people. The rugs made by Virginia Seal, the water color by Mary Leigh Weston and the posters by Thelma and Billie Thomas drew much attention and received many favorable comments.

Soldier Boys Make Fine Hobbies Is Quartermaster's Tip

Camp Shelby, Miss., Nov. 22—A good man may be hard to find in civilian life, but members of the quartermaster corps have framed "A tip to all single girls" extolling the extreme eligibility of Uncle Sam's soldiers.

The military man, they say, will eat whatever is set before him. He makes beds and cleans house expertly. He can sew on buttons and darn socks like a professional.

On $21 a month he has become an old hand at budgeting. He is easily entertained. He probably has a long list of favorite recipes up his sleeves and can wash and dry dishes blindfolded, though he prefers the orthodox manner.

And—essential point—his training in saying "Yes, sir," may be changed readily to "Yes, Dear."

Glendale, Calif.—After overturning an ashtray and setting fire to the living room rug, Buick, a black Persian cat at the home of Bert Umm, tore into his master's bedroom and awakened him in time to extinguish the blaze.

What seems to be a silly thing to do to the casual observer was done recently by Director Ralph Greer, who travelled 3,000 miles and spent $50,000 purchasing and photographing of all things clouds. The reason? California skies are usually completely clear or wholly overcast and cloud formations necessary in some pictures are at a premium.

Hollywood Echoes

MANY of the prominent screen stars in Hollywood are doing their bit to help the various relief organizations and other worthy charities. Outstanding among them is Cary Grant, who gave the $125,000 he got for his appearance in "The Philadelphia Story," to British War Relief, and then followed this immense gift with $5,000 to the United China Relief. The $125,000 he will receive for appearing in "Arsenic and Old Lace" will be divided among the United Service Organizations, the American Red Cross and recognized British charities.

Other stars who are contributing their earnings from radio broadcasts—from $1,000 to $5,000 per broadcast—include Wynna Loy, Ginger Rogers, George Murphy, Alan Marshall and many others.

Samuel Goldwyn's definition of a screen personality is "one who is enough like 20,000,000 other people that they can recognize themselves in the star; second, he or she has to be like these 20,000,000 people would like to visit with for an hour or two, every chance they get. This probably explains why out of the thousands of would-be stars, there are only a handful who reach the top."

It took a lot of real persuasion to get Stirling Hayden back to Hollywood for a re-take of an important love scene between Hayden and Madeline Carroll in "Bahama Passage," which had been spoiled in the laboratory. As soon as the "re-take" was finished, Hayden sped back to his home in the East.

Among the sons and daughters of movie stars now making good on their own in the movies are Tim Holt, son of Jack Holt; Douglas Fairbanks, Jr., who is at present in the U. S. Navy; Noah Beery, Jr.; Lon Chaney, Jr.; Bill Reid; Bryant Washburn, Jr.; Francis X. Bushman, Jr.; not to mention Jean Cagney, sister of Jimmy; June Havoc, sister of Gypsy Rose Lee and Joan Fontaine, sister of Olivia de Havilland.

More than 400 companies, all over America, are helping General Electric speed defense work by supplying parts that would normally be lost in normal times.

- Two of these subcontracting firms ordinarily manufacture fishing tackle. Another normally makes watches, and still another makes carpets.
- For making searchlights alone, subcontractors from five states prepare parts. About 75 companies contribute to building a steam turbine.
- More than 150 different firms supply parts in a steady, scheduled stream for radio transmitting and receiving equipment for the armed forces.
- Thus dozens of cities and small towns throughout America are becoming partners with G.E. in helping speed the national defense program.

Waveland Activities

Personal and General News Notes of the Week From Sister City and Vicinity.

Our Editor Passes.

OUR sorrow at the passing of an old friend who had the respect and affection of the community, Mr. Moreau prospered. At the time of his death he was president of the Merchants Bank & Trust Company, and he had many financial interests; he had been president of the Rotary Club. But the real success of his life was building the Sea Coast Echo which he founded January 9, 1892, a youngster of 18; and he was able to do that because he helped to build such strength and durability into his community.

For a long time he had been looking forward to this Golden Anniversary. At any rate he had the glory of preparing most of the matter, for the special issue, for the special articles were already in type or manuscript.

Plant Fruit Trees Now.

Hancock county people can feasibly and profitably grow more than 12 different kinds of fruit. By planting a succession of varieties says Eleanor Smith, home demonstration agent, a supply of fresh fruit may be produced from April to October. Although fruit trees and plants may be successfully planted any time during the winter, the month of December is preferable for planting such fruits as peaches, plums, pears, grapes, figs and pecans. Some of the varieties recommended by Chesky Hines, associate extension horticulturist are peaches. For a succession of good varieties plant Mayflower, Arp Beauty, Carmen, Golden Jubilee, Hiley, Georgia Belle, Early Elberta, Elberta, Hale and Chinese Ching. The Halehaven looks very promising and is deserving of trial. Elberta and Hale are not as successful in extreme South Mississippi as the other varieties.

Pears: Sand and Keifer for South Mississippi.

Bunch Grapes: The grape harvest season may be extended for several weeks by planting one or more vines of the following varieties: Champion, Moore's Early, Delaware, Niagara, R. W. Munson, Lenoir Concord, Ives, Extra and Champaign. The Champaign, Extra, and Champion are more vigorous, resistant to disease and longer-lived than the others.

Muscadine Grapes: Suggested varieties include Scuppernon, James, Thomas and Hunt, plus one male vine.

Figs: The Celeste and Brown Turkey are considered the best varieties for Mississippi.

Pecans: Plant Stuart, Success, Lewis, Schley, Money-maker and Moore varieties. The Stuart and Lewis varieties are more resistant to scab, but are not as good quality as the others.

Schley is tops in quality. Moore produces earliest and largest crops and Success is a good all-around pecan.

Goes To New Orleans.

To town from her home here went Mrs. Gayle Aiken, Jr. She drove in to attend the enjoyable program of Le Petit Salon, Miss Jessie Sharp read a play.

Good Catch—500 lbs. of Fish.

Mr. Preston Vinet gave a lucky treat to his friends with his lucky catch. Sarah entertained over the week end at her home on Beach boulevard. Miss Grace Weittel, Miss T. Dwyer and Miss Hazel Fork.

Mrs. W. Bourgeois and daughter, Thelma, went sight-seeing in New Orleans.

Many Visitors.

Among the many to enjoy with relatives and friends were the Hellbacks, Margel Bourgeois, Louis Bourgeois and family from Baton Rouge.

Red Cross.

Reports from Waveland group including Mesdames Carriere, Caffrey, Thompson and Boyd, are better than ever before. Everyone cooperating in this worthy cause.

Expected Home.

Herlily John Moree will be home for the holidays after a long absence due to his line of work. After finishing his studies at the Curtis Wright Aeroplane school in California he worked up as a designer in the factory there.

From Panama.

News comes from Mrs. Jack Wilson of her thrilling trip to Canal Zone. Friends met her upon landing. She has joined her husband who is at present stationed there.

This column last week carried an announcement from U. S. Army Air Corps about accepting young men for training in that line, but since that announcement the Government has made some changes and will not carry out the plan, exactly as outlined last week. The training facilities of the aeronautical schools will be used for other forms of training. Young men interested along this line would do well to contact their post office or write directly to Manager, Fifth U. S. Civil Service District, New Post Office Building, Atlanta, Georgia.

On Saturday of this week, December 6, a meeting of state-wide interest will be held at the Robert E. Lee Hotel by the Mississippi Association of Crime and Delinquency. Lt. Gov. Dennis Murphree and Attorney General Greek Rice will take part in the meeting, as will many other prominent Mississippians, men and women. Among the visiting speakers will be Warden Joseph W. Sanford of the U. S. Penitentiary in Atlanta, Ga.; Francis Hiller, field director of the National Probation Association; Judge Alex Smith, chairman of the Alabama board of pardons and paroles; Judge L. C. Corban, circuit judge, Biloxi, and perhaps others. There is a strong sentiment in this state for a pardon and parole board and it is certain that the next session of the legislature will be confronted with the proposition in the form of a bill.

Walker Wood, Secretary of State, is receiving from the printer department reports to be distributed to the members of the legislature as the law directs, at their regular session of the Mississippi Blue Book, 1939-1941, but this book will not be ready for distribution until after January, first. This issue of the Blue Book is larger and carries a greater volume of information than any former edition.

The Belzoni Banner calls attention to the fact that Congressman Will Whittington, of the third district, was instrumental in securing passage of a bill appropriating money for highway improvement and construction. Mr. Whittington has been a leader in the matter of highway legislation as well as in the field of flood control.

W. N. Darden, well known citizen of Hernando and for 30 years editor of the Times-Promoter of that city, died Monday of last week. Mr. Darden was 69 years of age, a native of Montgomery county, Miss. At the age of 19 he went to work for the Winona Times.

An oil well of small production was recently brought in near Vicksburg. This particular well is not very promising except as it indicates that there may be more and better oil nearby, and other drilling will soon decide that matter. State Geologist, W. C. Morse, has recently made the public statement that a large quantity of limestone and marl has been found in Warren county. The limestone is at least good for farm land which is deficient in lime, and the marl will serve the same purpose, and some of this material may be found suitable for making cement.

New members of the legislature recently elected to take the place of those who have died or resigned since the last session, are as follows: Senator Oscar Wolfe, Bolivar county;

COMEDY DRAMA MADE FOR BOB BURNS AT ORTIE'S SUNDAY

"Alias The Deacon," with a Good Cast Supporting.

Bob Burns, with his bazooka and his lovely, humorous stories about the kinkfolk back yonder, returns to the screen in the new Universal comedy, "Alias the Deacon," which opens Sunday and Monday at the Ortie Theater.

In contrast to his more recent screen roles, Burns is distinctly himself in "Alias the Deacon." He is the same friendly and comic philosopher who has made his relatives world famous since he emerged a few years ago from Van Buren, Ark. to tell about them.

Comedy situations are heightened by the presence of Micha Auer, who appears with Burns for the first time. As the volatile barber of an oil field, Auer helps Burns solve the difficulties of some troubled friends by outwitting a group of small time crooks.

Dennis O'Keefe and Peggy Moran provide the romantic interest, and O'Keefe pairs with Quinn "Big Boy" Williams in a desperate ten-round prize fight that proves the action highlight of the picture.

"Alias the Deacon" is the film version of a famous stage success and was directed by Christy Cabanne from a screenplay by Nat Perrin and Charles Grayson.

Sam Collier, Monroe county. In the House—Bruce H. Bass, Copiah county; Mrs. Grafton G. Bennett, Winthrop county; Phil H. Sanlin, Marshall county; Kenneth Riley, Lawrence county; J. A. Thigpen, Bolivar county; Ed DeMott, Chickasaw county.

"INTERNATIONAL SQUADRON" AT A. & G. THEATER

Sunday and Monday, Starring Ronald Reagan.

At the A. & G. Theater, Sunday and Monday will be "International Squadron," starring Ronald Reagan, with a featured supporting cast that includes Olympe Bradna, William Lundigan, Joan Perry and Reginald Denny.

"International Squadron" tells the story of a daredevil Yankee pilot who joins up with the all-nations unit of the R. A. F. This is the colorful squadron whose heroic exploits have thrilled and amazed the world. Made up of fliers from Poland, Czechoslovakia, Norway, France, North and South America and the British dominions, it is the most truly international fighting group the world has ever known. The Yankee flier joins up with them, after taxing an American bomber to London. One night of a London air-raid makes him decide to stay, but it takes much longer for him to learn the true meaning of the group spirit of the International Squadron. When he does, he more than lives up to it in heroism.

Audiences who have previewed "International Squadron" in Hollywood have lauded Reagan's performance as one of the year's best, and the picture as a thoroughly exciting screen adventure, well-blended with romance. Its stirring aerial combat scenes, showing actual engagements between Spitfires and Messerschmitts are among the most thrilling ever filmed.

"International Squadron" was directed by Lewis Seiler, from a screen play by Kenneth Gamet and Barry Trivers, suggested by a play by Frank Wead.

FLEAS AND FLIES BATTLE TO 6-6 DEADLOCK SUNDAY

Sunday afternoon the Fleas and the Flies stubbornly fought to a 6-6 deadlock in one of the most exciting gridiron conflicts ever to ensue at the Stanislaus field. One of the largest crowds to attend a Flea and Fly Classic, since its inauguration in 1916 by Brother James, saw the traditional rivals battle it out to determine the winning eleven for the present year.

Although the records of similar encounters slightly favored the Fleas to be the decisive winners, the Fleas, coached by Mike Mitchell, took advantage of a favorable position, and launched a very effective aerial attack which gave them a touchdown only 4 seconds before the end of the half. This scoring tally occurred when Jeffrey Favre snagged a pass pitched from the 22 and stepped over the goal—unmolested.

Not until late in the third quarter did the Fleas, ably coached by Jack Perkins, spark a terrific drive which terminated in a tally. Dickie Curran smashing through the Flies' powerful forward wall, dodged their secondary, and galloped for a fine ten yards touchdown. The try for the extra point failed and the score remained tied, 6 to 6.

The last quarter saw both elevens on the verge of scoring but each attack was repelled by the other team. Throughout this quarter both teams displayed great accuracy in passing, blocking, punting, and tackling. The ball game ended with a 6 to 6 score. During the half the Stanislaus band, divided into two units so that each team would possess musical organization. They gave a marvelous showing. The main attraction was the demonstration given by the Stanislaus ace baton twirler, George Comeaux. In addition to this both teams flanked out in a single file and performed an elaborate ceremony.

The whole Sunday affair indeed proved to be a great success. Plenty of credit should be given to Brother Leonard, who accomplished such a difficult task of making the game a sensational hit.
